

Employee Benefits for Individuals in Professional or Instructional Capacities

Employee benefits for individuals employed by the board in professional or instructional capacities, including classroom instructors, athletic coaches, and athletic support personnel employed under a full-time contract are set forth in the negotiated agreement between the board of trustees and NCCC Professional Educators' Association

Revised: 8/12/04