

Employment Recruitment

An active recruitment program for professional personnel shall continue at all times. The president and vice presidents shall actively recruit and maintain a file of applications for all positions. Instructors, administrators, and other interested persons are encouraged to be continually on the alert for personnel who might qualify and be an asset to the college.