

Monthly Report

The chief financial officer shall make a monthly report to the president and board summarizing the revenue, expenditures, and encumbrances within the various funds maintained as part of the college's accounting system.